

Introducing the Latest Styles in Women's Apparel

DULARD AND GEORGETTE

IN THE MILLINER'S WINDOW

This spring's hats are wonderfully becoming, and here are three of them designed for the younger woman. At the top a dress hat of braid and georgette; at the bottom a street hat of satin and beads, and between them a semidress hat brightened by ribbon and flowers.

ed foulard and plain georgette. Sometimes an underskirt of silk makes a foundation, as in the picture here.

ARMING UTILITY FROCK

NEW THREE-PIECE SUIT

state his idea of charm and combined in a frock, some designer has used such simple a tricot, satin and bone but they have been put together skillfully in a dress that will to the young woman who re-servicable clothes and insists on style in them.

Here is one of those three-piece suits in which a satin middie blouse, that matches it in color takes the place of the usual shirtwaist. This blouse has a loose, narrow girldle of satin and is turned up at the bottom, forming pockets. The coat is a new model and insists upon disclosing its satin companion.

SUIT OF MEN'S WEAR SERGE

SUMMER AFTERNOONS

To begin at the beginning of a perfect wardrobe, is to select a dependable tailored suit—one that is all a tailored suit should be. Fine, clean lines, perfection in tailoring, above reproach as to fit, these are the things to look for in a tailored suit. To attend the several styles in suits this spring there are waistcoats in endless variety. Skirts are plain and long, reaching nearly to the instep, and coats challenge admiration by such well balanced lines as appear in this trim model of blue men's wear serge shown above.
